

LISA GREEN

Adelaide born violinist.

Lisa Green began studying violin at the age of six, and at ten entered the Elder Conservatorium under the tutorship of Beryl Kimber, gaining her Bachelor of Music (Performance) degree with distinction in 1983.

Lisa has won numerous national competitions and has performed as soloist with the Adelaide and Melbourne symphony orchestras, the Australian and Queensland Youth Orchestras, the Adelaide Chamber Orchestra, as well as giving many solo recitals and guest artist appearances.

Lisa furthered her studies for two years in Cologne at the Musikhochschule with Professor Igor Ozim and later at the "Bern Konservatorium für Musik" where she completed her Solistendiplom in violin with distinction. From 1987 – 1991 she studied with Salvatore Accardo in Cremona. Lisa has performed as soloist with the "Bern Symphony Orchestra", the "Virtuosi of Santa Cecilia", the "Lombardia Chamber Orchestra", the "Goffredo Petrassi Chamber Orchestra", the "European Women's Symphony Orchestra", the female ensemble "Le Muse" and the "Nova Amadeus".

In 1990 in Venice, Lisa premiered three concertos by the eighteenth century composer Maddalena Lombardini Syrmen with the Chamber Orchestra "L'Offerta Musicale".

In 1993 Lisa won third prize both in the Seventh International Violin in Brescia and in the "Michelangelo Abbado" International Competition".

She works regularly as concert-master and soloist with various symphony and chamber orchestras and has had engagements in Italy, Poland, England, Kenya, Greece and Switzerland.

Her repertoire ranges from baroque to contemporary.